

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Post Launching in Honor of the Delaware's Sponsor.

ELOQUENT RESPONSES TO TOASTS

President Orcutt, of the Shipyard, Presides in Happy Fashion—Governor Pennewill Speaks for Delaware; Congressman Jones for Virginia.

Of all the many brilliant post-launching banquets, luncheons and breakfasts rendered by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company there has been none more delightful than the breakfast given at Hotel Warwick yesterday in honor of Miss Anne Pennewill Colgate, the young lady who christened the warship namesake of her native state, the giant Delaware. The repast was a delicious one, and the impromptu responses to toasts were most felicitous.

The dining hall of the hotel had been appropriately decorated for the occasion, and Smith's orchestra was playing when the guests, more than two hundred in number, assembled.

President Calvin B. Orcutt, who for an hour had been one of the happiest men in America presided as toastmaster, and extended a hearty welcome to the guests after making a laughing reference to the Delaware's delay in starting from the ways, saying "It was no wonder that this grand ship hesitated about leaving so friendly a shore."

The first speaker was Judge James Pennewill of Delaware, who eloquently responded to the toast, "The President of the United States."

Next came Hon. William A. Jones, representative of the First Virginia district in congress, who was called upon to speak to the toast, "Virginia." "The people of Newport News and Virginia are glad to have you here on this occasion," said Mr. Jones in welcoming the Delaware party to his state and district. Before concluding the congressman did not forget to refer to the fact that seven of the sixteen mighty battle-ships now touring the world were built in the Old Dominion at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

Responding to the toast, "Delaware," Governor S. S. Pennewill said: "In behalf of the great state I represent I wish to say we appreciate the naming of this great battleship for our state." The governor dwelt upon the glories of his state, and referred in glowing terms to Virginia.

Col. L. W. T. Waller, U. S. M. C., responded to the toast, "The Navy" and Former United States Senator Higgins, of Delaware, following him, spoke briefly. Hon. Daniel O. Hastings, secretary of state for Delaware, responded when "The Battleship Delaware" was given, and Former Secretary of State Joseph L. Cahall, had the honor of making an eloquent response to the toast, "The Fair Sponsor."

Others of the Delaware party called upon were Colonel Burton and Mr. Josiah Marvel. Mr. Marvel had the distinction of being the only Democrat in the governor's party, and his remarks concerning this fact were signals for outbursts of applause from all sides.

Calling upon General Manager Walter A. Post of the yard, Mr. Orcutt said: "I can never say too much for the men who do the work. Here's to Walter A. Post and his staff, and to every last man white and black, in the yard." Mr. Post responded in happy fashion.

During the afternoon applause was frequent, and cheers were given for "Delaware," "Virginia," "The Fair Sponsor," and "Mr. Jones."

For this occasion Manager A. T. Moore, of the Warwick, had provided handsome handpainted souvenir menu cards, the cover design including an engraving of the Delaware as she will appear when completed, surmounted by the American eagle and shield, and the Delaware coat of arms.

Acts of Pervert, Says Doctor.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, Feb. 6.—That the murders of six women in Dayton recently were committed by a single individual is the theory of Dr. Charles H. Clark, former clinical director of the government hospital for the insane, Washington, and now superintendent of the Cleveland State Hospital for the insane.

"Circumstances identical in each case point to a single murderer," said Dr. Clark today. "The facts in the Dayton series have been published broadcast. Yet no similar crime has occurred elsewhere. This is an argument for the theory of a single murderer."

All of the Same Type.

"This monster is selective. His victims have been nearly of an age. Their circumstances in life have been similar. All were girls attractive in stature and form."

The best evidence that all six murders were committed by a single individual is the fact that in each case the victim was strangled.

This—the use of one method in several cases—is typical of the pervert.

The Dayton monster has a prototype in Jack the Ripper, the London murderer.

"Once the pervert has taken life in a certain manner, then after he cannot be satisfied except in that identical way."

"Perversion usually lasts through life. As long as the pervert is free he is bound to commit more crime."

NEGRO WHO BROKE JAIL RECAPTURED BY OFFICERS

Robert Jones, alias Sylvester Austin, Puts Up Fight Upon Being Recognized.

Robert Jones, alias Sylvester Austin, the negro who escaped from the stolen house Thursday night was captured late yesterday afternoon by Officers Parrish and Mossick at Twenty-fifth and Jefferson avenue, and after a rather lively struggle in which the negro tried to beat up the officers was led into the police station, charged with all breaking and resisting an officer.

Jones was recognized by Patrolman Parrish while walking down Jefferson avenue near Twenty-fifth Street, and when the officer attempted to arrest him, the negro put up a rather lively struggle, but Patrolman Jeffs soon came to the rescue and the man was quickly subdued.

Another meeting will be held in Norfolk on Wednesday evening at the staff officers' mess hall at the naval station, and the officers, among the rank and file, are expected to be present.

Again the negro, who had been trying to escape, was captured by the police force at the same place.
